Appreciation for the exquisite

Rawlence and Horton, the only fine stationers of their kind in New Zealand, continue to add to their broad assortment of social and business stationery, with the launch of the contemporary Diamond Monogram range.

card, the range is tested for fountain pen suitability to ensure the ink does not bleed.

Designed for everyday use when one wishes to convey a handwritten, personalised message, the Diamond Monogram range retails for $30 per set.

Uniquely manufactured in New Zealand, Rawlence and Horton is committed to ensuring their premium product mix has a minimal impact on the environment.

The understated yet modern style of Rawlence and Horton is designed with both men and women in mind.

The new Diamond Monogram range is a great gift to receive and makes for a high quality corporate gift option with a personal touch.

Each set within the collection includes 10 monogrammed cards and envelopes, beautifully presented in a custom made Rawlence and Horton box. Made from 100 percent recycled, luxuriously thick

Co-founder Michael Rawlence is originally from the UK and with 10 years of experience in the industry has remarkable experience in fine stationery. Michael was part owner of a luxury British stationery company that held the royal warrants to provide stationery to Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II and His Royal Highness, The Prince of Wales, Prince Charles.

Michael has personally worked with Victoria Beckham, Elizabeth Hurley, Hugh Grant, Jemima Khan and the Goldsmith family to provide luxury bespoke stationery and event and wedding invitations.

The complete Rawlence and Horton range is available online at www.rawlenceandhorton.com.
